

Co-Share OFFICE SPACE OPPORTUNITY

The Workers Arts and Heritage Centre, located at 51 Stuart Street in Hamilton in the James Street North arts district, is a community museum and arts centre housed in the historic Custom House.

For further information Contact:
Daniel Hill, Facilities Coordinator,
daniel@wahc-museum.ca.

A current tenant, the Ontario Federation of Home and School Associations, is actively offering a co-share workspace opportunity in the second floor office space, to begin immediately! The shared office space is advantageous for a small arts or not-for-profit organization, with a small staff compliment.

- Bright, natural light workspace with high ceilings large windows
- Adaptable workspace arrangement within 600sq. ft. (see picture)
- Rental is $425/month inclusive of utilities
- Fully accessible building with shared washrooms
- Security protected facility
- Complementary use of a small meeting room (seats 12)

OFHSA is an organization of volunteer members that have been actively working alongside our partners in public education for over 100 years to ensure that the education, health, safety and social well-being of children and youth are a priority for all in this province.

ALL INQUIRIES WELCOME. We are interested in building a meaningful and lasting relationship with our tenants.