

OFHSA'S OBJECTIVES

This is what we strive for.

SUPPORT CHILDREN AND YOUTH

- Promote the welfare, care, and protection of children and youth
- Obtain the best for each child according to their physical, mental, social, and spiritual needs

IMPROVE HOME LIFE

- Raise the standards of home life allowing children and youth to flourish both at home and at school.
- Support the improvement of home life by advocating, teaching safety in the workplace, having local associations create much-needed community programs.

PARENT AND TEACHER ENGAGEMENT

- Foster the cooperation between parents & teachers, in the training and guidance of children and youth
- Strive to give parents an understanding of the school and its work and to assist in interpreting the school in all its aspects to the public.

ORGANIZATIONS & CITIZENSHIP

- Confer and cooperate with organizations other than schools which concern themselves with the care and training of children and youth in the home, the school and the community
- Educate the adults to meet these responsibilities.
- Foster high ideals of citizenship and to promote through educational means international goodwill and peace.

OUR MANDATE

OFHSA speaks for members across Ontario. Input and concerns are communicated by individual Home & School Members, Home & School Associations, and Home & School Councils to the board of directors for action.

Resolutions are presented by members at the Annual Meeting of the Federation. Upon adoption these resolutions become OFHSA policy. Federation responses represent the collective voice of members.

An independent voice of parents actively supporting public education at the school, school board, and provincial level.

An organization of volunteers committed to ensuring that the education, health, safety and social well-being of children and youth are a priority for all.

A network of members providing support, training, resources and advice developed over a long history of involvement.
